National Seminar Series 2018/2019
Draft Programme (subject to change)
Learning from Student Success: Barriers and Facilitators.
Venue: Global Room, TCD
Date: February 21, 2019

‘Student voice is integral to genuinely hear from the student population their recommendations for change as producers of their own success’, Alan and Nichols (2017) Do you hear me? Student voice, academic success and retention. Student Success Volume 8, Issue 2, pp. 123-129

9.30-10.00 Registration
10.00-10.15 Welcome: Mike Wride (CAPSL, TCD), Aimee Connolly (SU Education Officer, TCD)
10.15-11.15 Keynote: Invited speaker: Cat O’Driscoll, NStep, USI, Oisin Hassan, Deputy President/Vice President for Academic Affairs (USI)
11:15-11:45: Coffee/Tea and student submissions viewing
11.45-12.00 Introduction to student speakers
12.00-12.20 Talk 1: Looking back to the start: Views of success of final year students on their first year: Talking to my first year self.
13.00-14.00 Lunch and student submissions viewing.
14.00-14.45 Panel discussion: Student Perspectives and Experiences of Success:
Presentations of student work and a panel discussion of students from different disciplines and different institutions
14.45-16.15 Groupwork: Sharing and capturing best practice around student success:
Staff and students co-create knowledge around success and share and compare what success means to them (will be used to produce resource docs).